Dear Dad,

I've really known you a long time & am its really when it comes to the

I think you a real swell fellow & that I'm wishing you all the luck in the world. (Too bad we can't get you a double-plate huh?)

Love Dad

Hi Dad,

There's hoping that you have all the luck that is possible. You are a swell kid and deserve the best. It was fun having you in Dramatics and hearing you emot. Remember that play we did "you can't take it with you." you and your music in it was superb. The best always.

Satulle James

Well Ted
We've had a lot of fun in Albee's in Clag I got to meet you and Hope I see you again some time

Dear Ted,
What would I have ever done in this class without your quiet remarks and asking me when something was due. Even though you may get an F in a class, you're really the crazy guy with the funny things you have said & when I you were serious & see in really hope to see in if you are still there same. What do you think I mean by that? I mean
sincerely
Love Dad

Dearest Daddy

It sure has been fun knowing you this year - especially in Dramatics. Lots of luck & success next year.

Love Dad
I'm glad I got to know you this year.
I hope I can get to know you even better next year.
I'll then a special,

Dear Mother
 I have just received your letter of the 11th and was glad to hear from you. I am well and hope this finds you the same. I have not much news to write at present. I am still in the same place. I have been thinking of writing to you for some time but have not had time. I will write again soon.

Reverend Why? Jude

Dear Ted,

Will knee goes the ball flying again. No I am just kidding cause you really are a swell kid. I will never forget all the utterly crazy things that we have done. Remember the night we went to the Rainbow and how I was playing I was drunk. What a riot. I must say it was a pretty good imitation at that. Oh and do you remember all those rides in Riley's convent and the day we threw all those books out and finally my purse too. Over the side they all flew and then we had to stop and pick them up. I will never forget that first day we walked into English and how Colleen raved over that cute boy in there (you of course.) I really think you two make a cute couple. Will believe it or not I have run out of things to say. Oh by the way thanks for letting me go with you and Colleen to the park that Sunday night. I really was all mixed up and selling home was putting on my nerves. Will bid the paper is growing scarce and so are my words. I only hope we will be friends for many more years & that we can double-date this summer. + please Ted don't forget me. Luck to you always Fred a person synonymous with our South . . .

Miss Winifred H. Dyer
Assistant Principal

... our leaders ...

M. Lynn Bennion
Superintendent

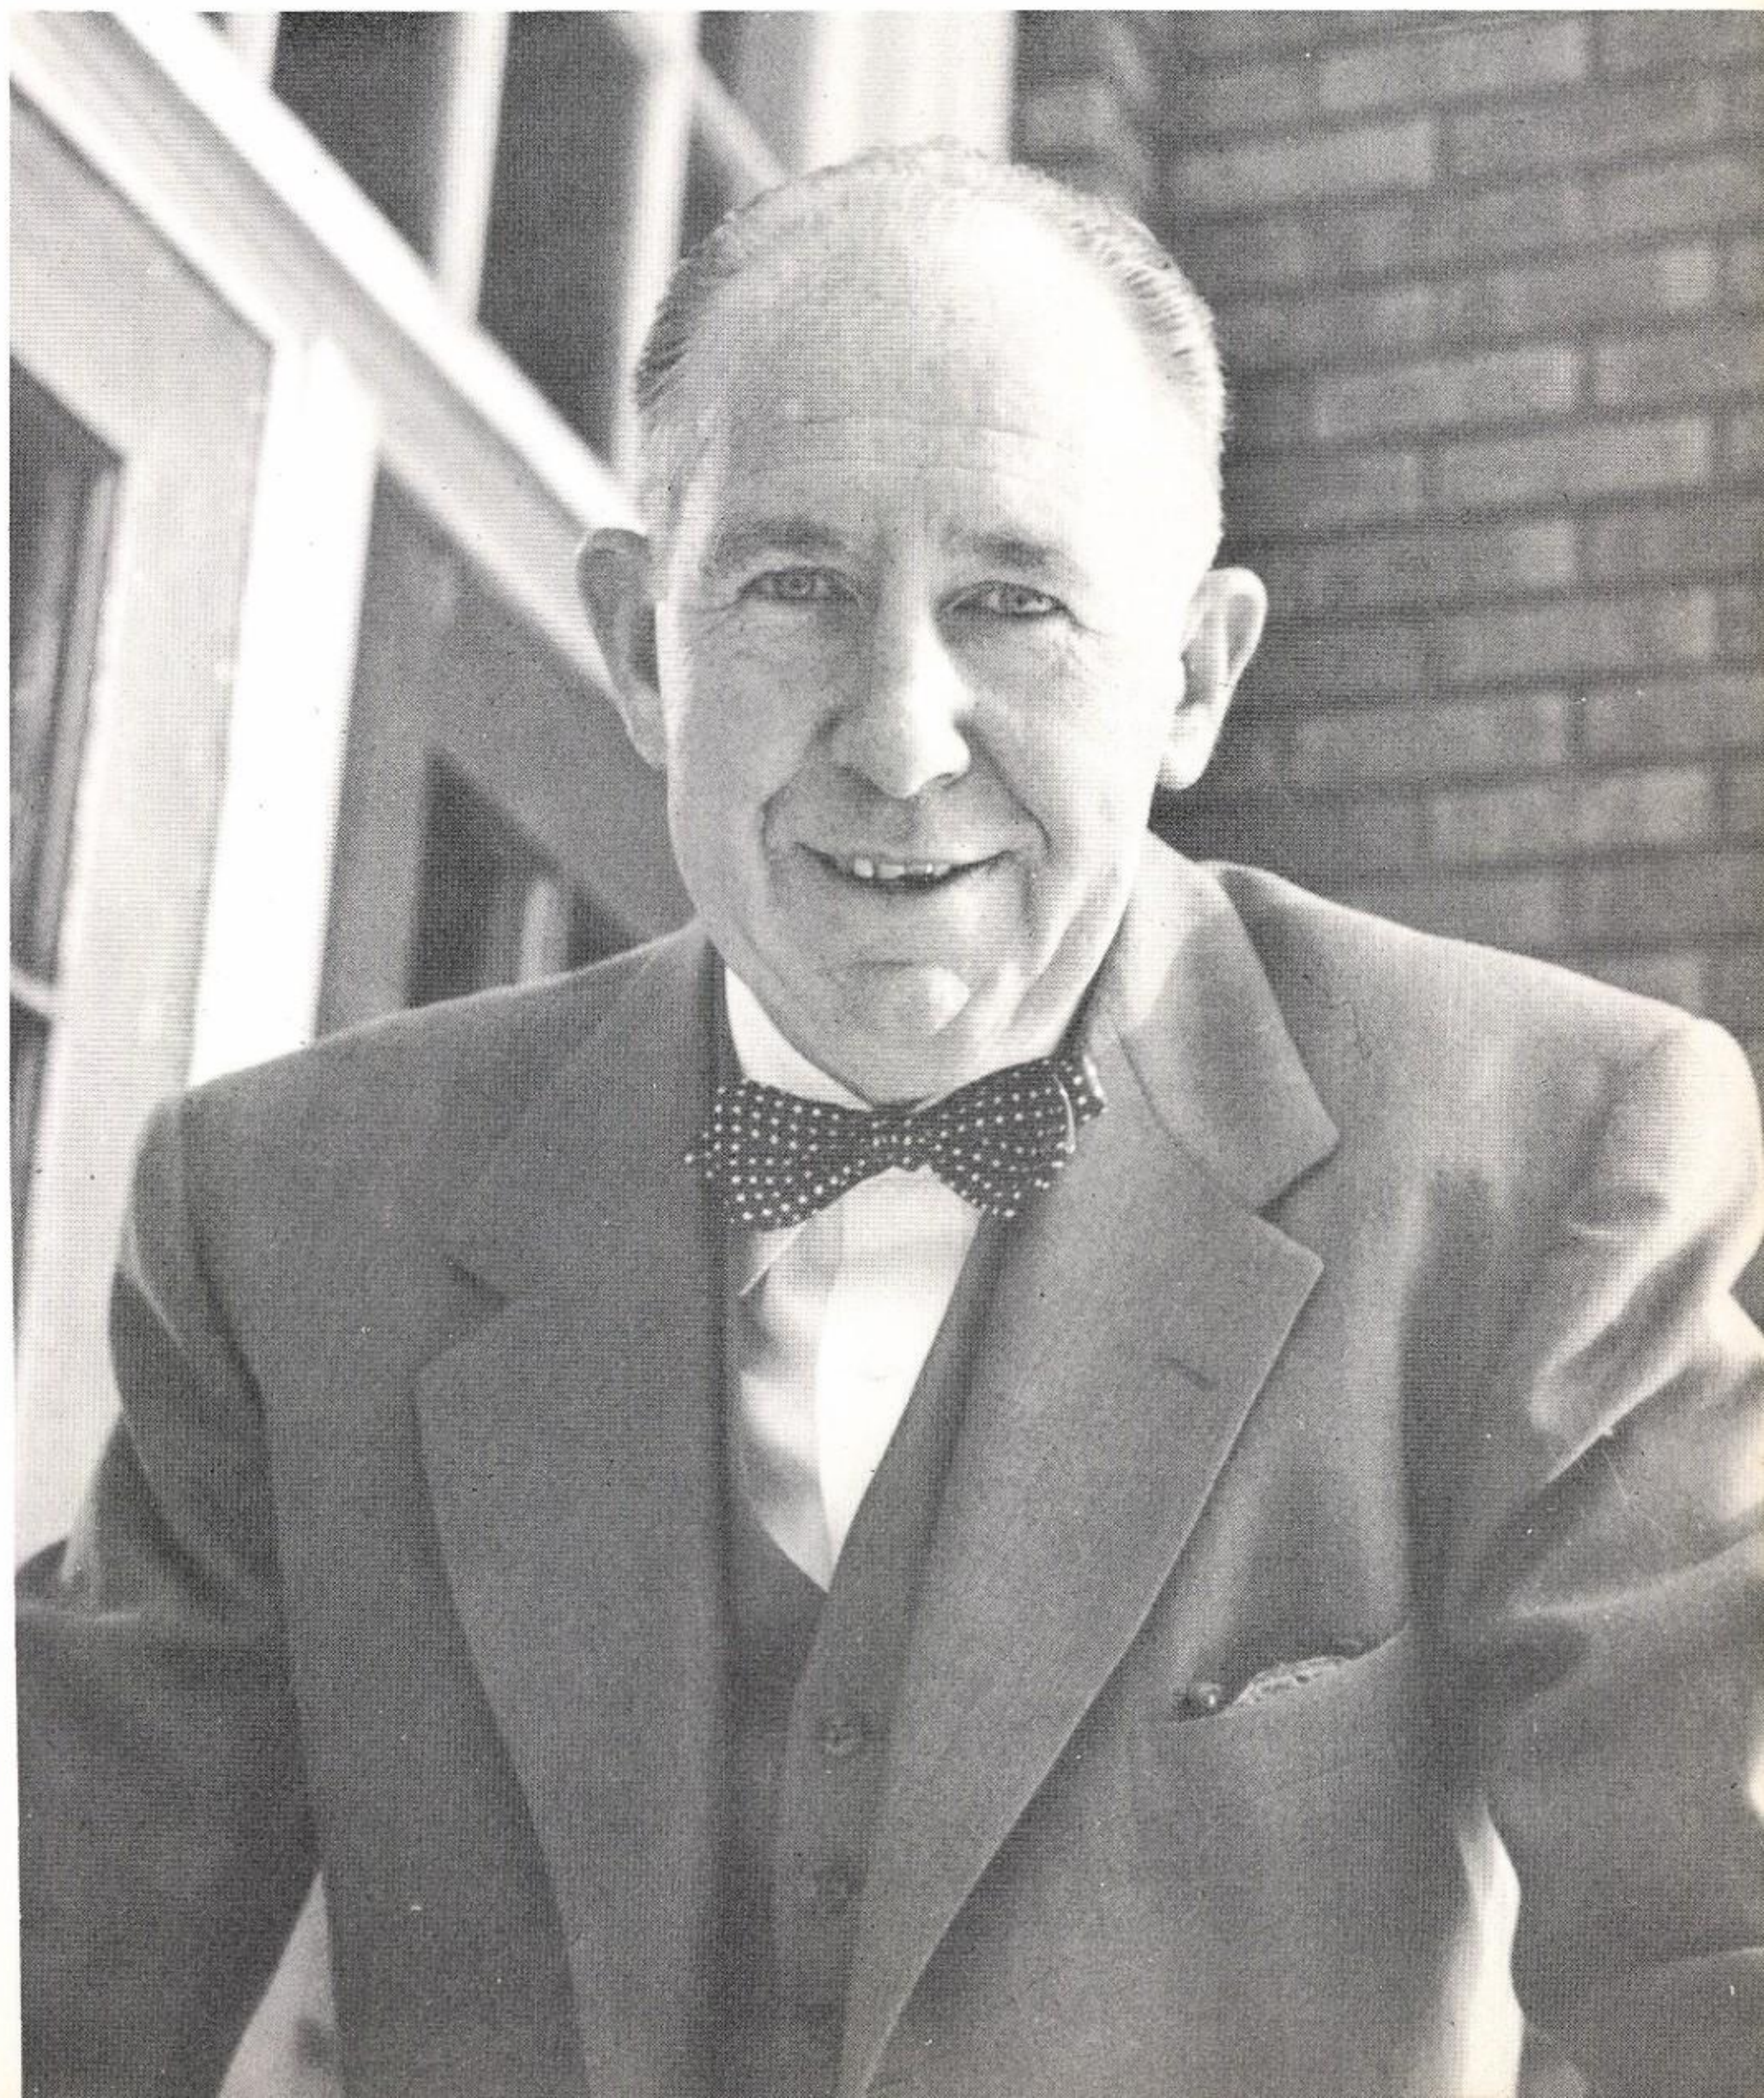

Lawrence Schroder
Assistant Superintendent

Marion G. Merkley
Assistant Superintendent

Ralph V. Backman
Principal

Combining his natural talents with the interest he has in his work and the students, Mr. Backman has been a tremendous power behind South's progress. A man who holds the respect of every Cub, he has expertly performed his duties as "head man" of South High.

C. Dewey Hale

Dean of Students

Being dean of 2400 students at a large high school is an assignment worthy of a person of the very highest caliber. Dewey Hale is just such a man. Besides having the tremendous responsibility of the directing of student affairs, Mr. Hale has shown friendliness and good humor in all his dealings with Cubs. Every Southerner who has been to Mr. Hale's office (and most of us have!) has found him ready to help us with any problem, large or small.

Dr. Doug Williams

Counselor

As counselor of the boys of South High, Doug Williams has a rocky road to follow. He must show wisdom and good judgment in all his dealings with students, and be careful not to hurt anyone's feeling in the process. By knowledge and understanding of the student's problems, he has helped many a Southerner.

Miss Lucille Monay

Counselor

With wisdom and common sense, Miss Monay gives advice to all who consult her. She is a friend to everyone and administers much-needed counsel to young people who are eager to develop the right attitude toward life.

Walter Stevens

Treasurer

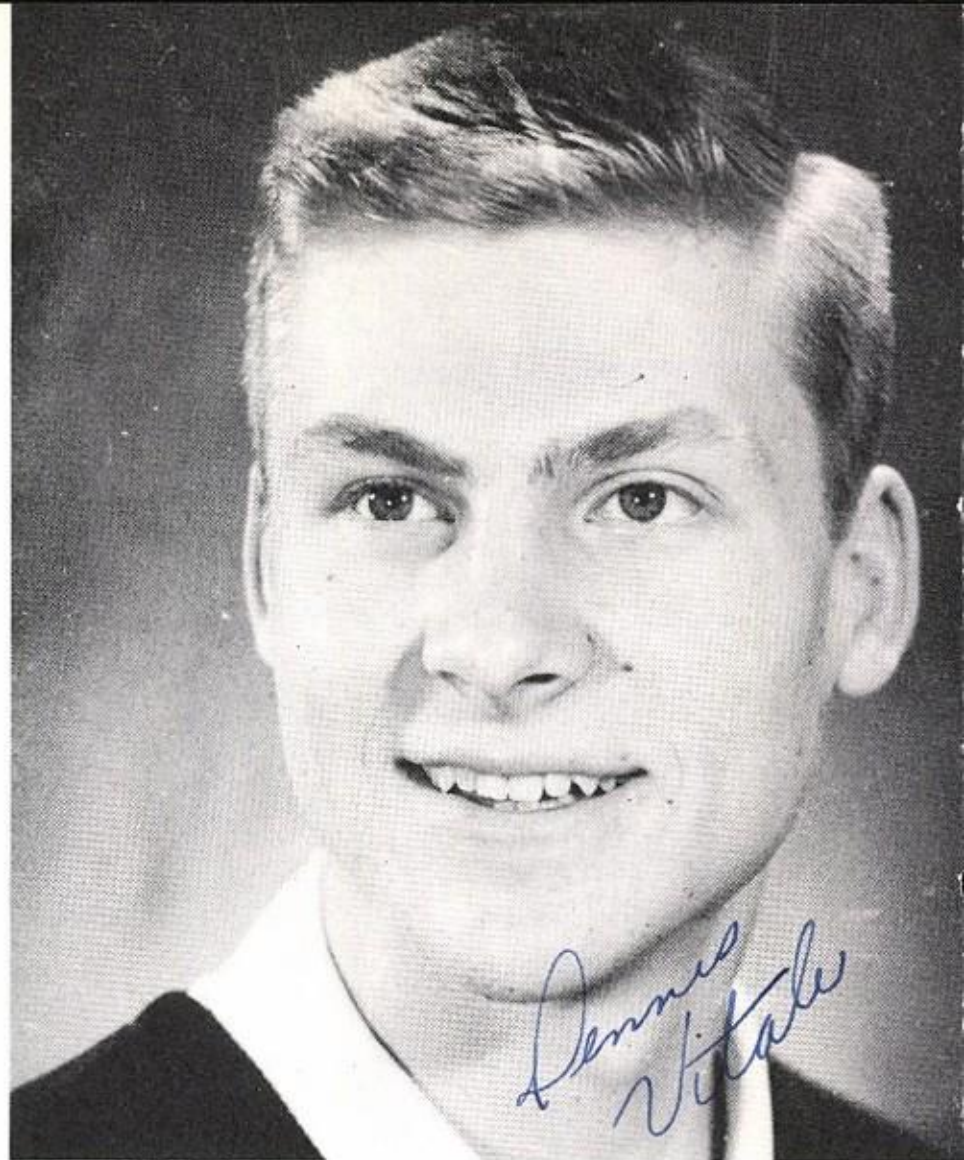

Acquiring bits of culture from his many travels and molding them into an extraordinarily well-balanced philosophy of life, Walter Stevens brings us his charming personality and just the right ability it takes to perform his job as treasurer of our Cub lair.

Reid Hilton, 1st Vice-President

Greeted by a witty remark, leaving you with a warm feeling of being appreciated, Reid Hilton, as first vice-president of South, has proven a substantial and dependable leader during this school year.

Dennis Vitale, 2nd Vice-President

Vital to South, that's Dennis, who has been a most efficient second vice-president this school year. "A man of poise," we see his tall figure in assemblies, in the halls, and then in class. Vitale's proven truly vital to South.

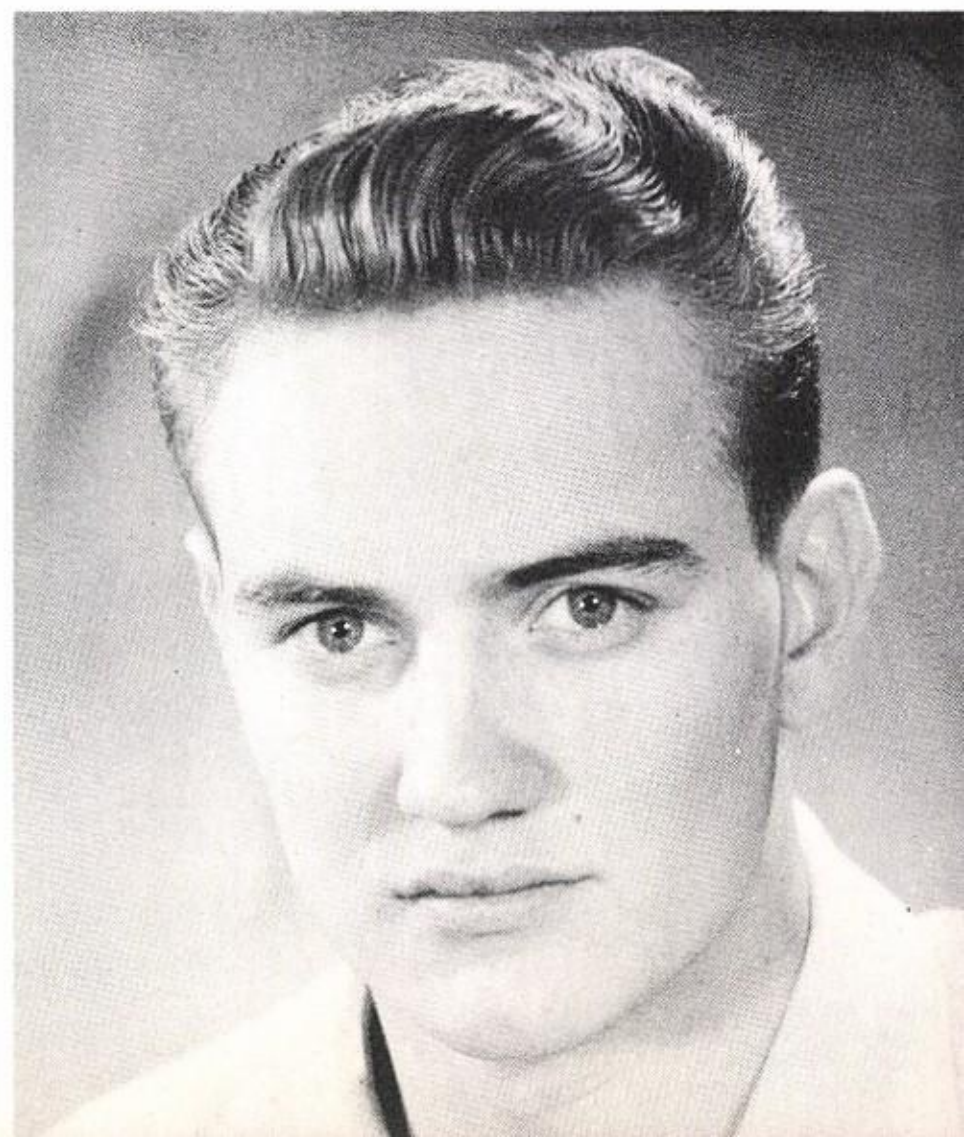

Bobbie McKean, Secretary

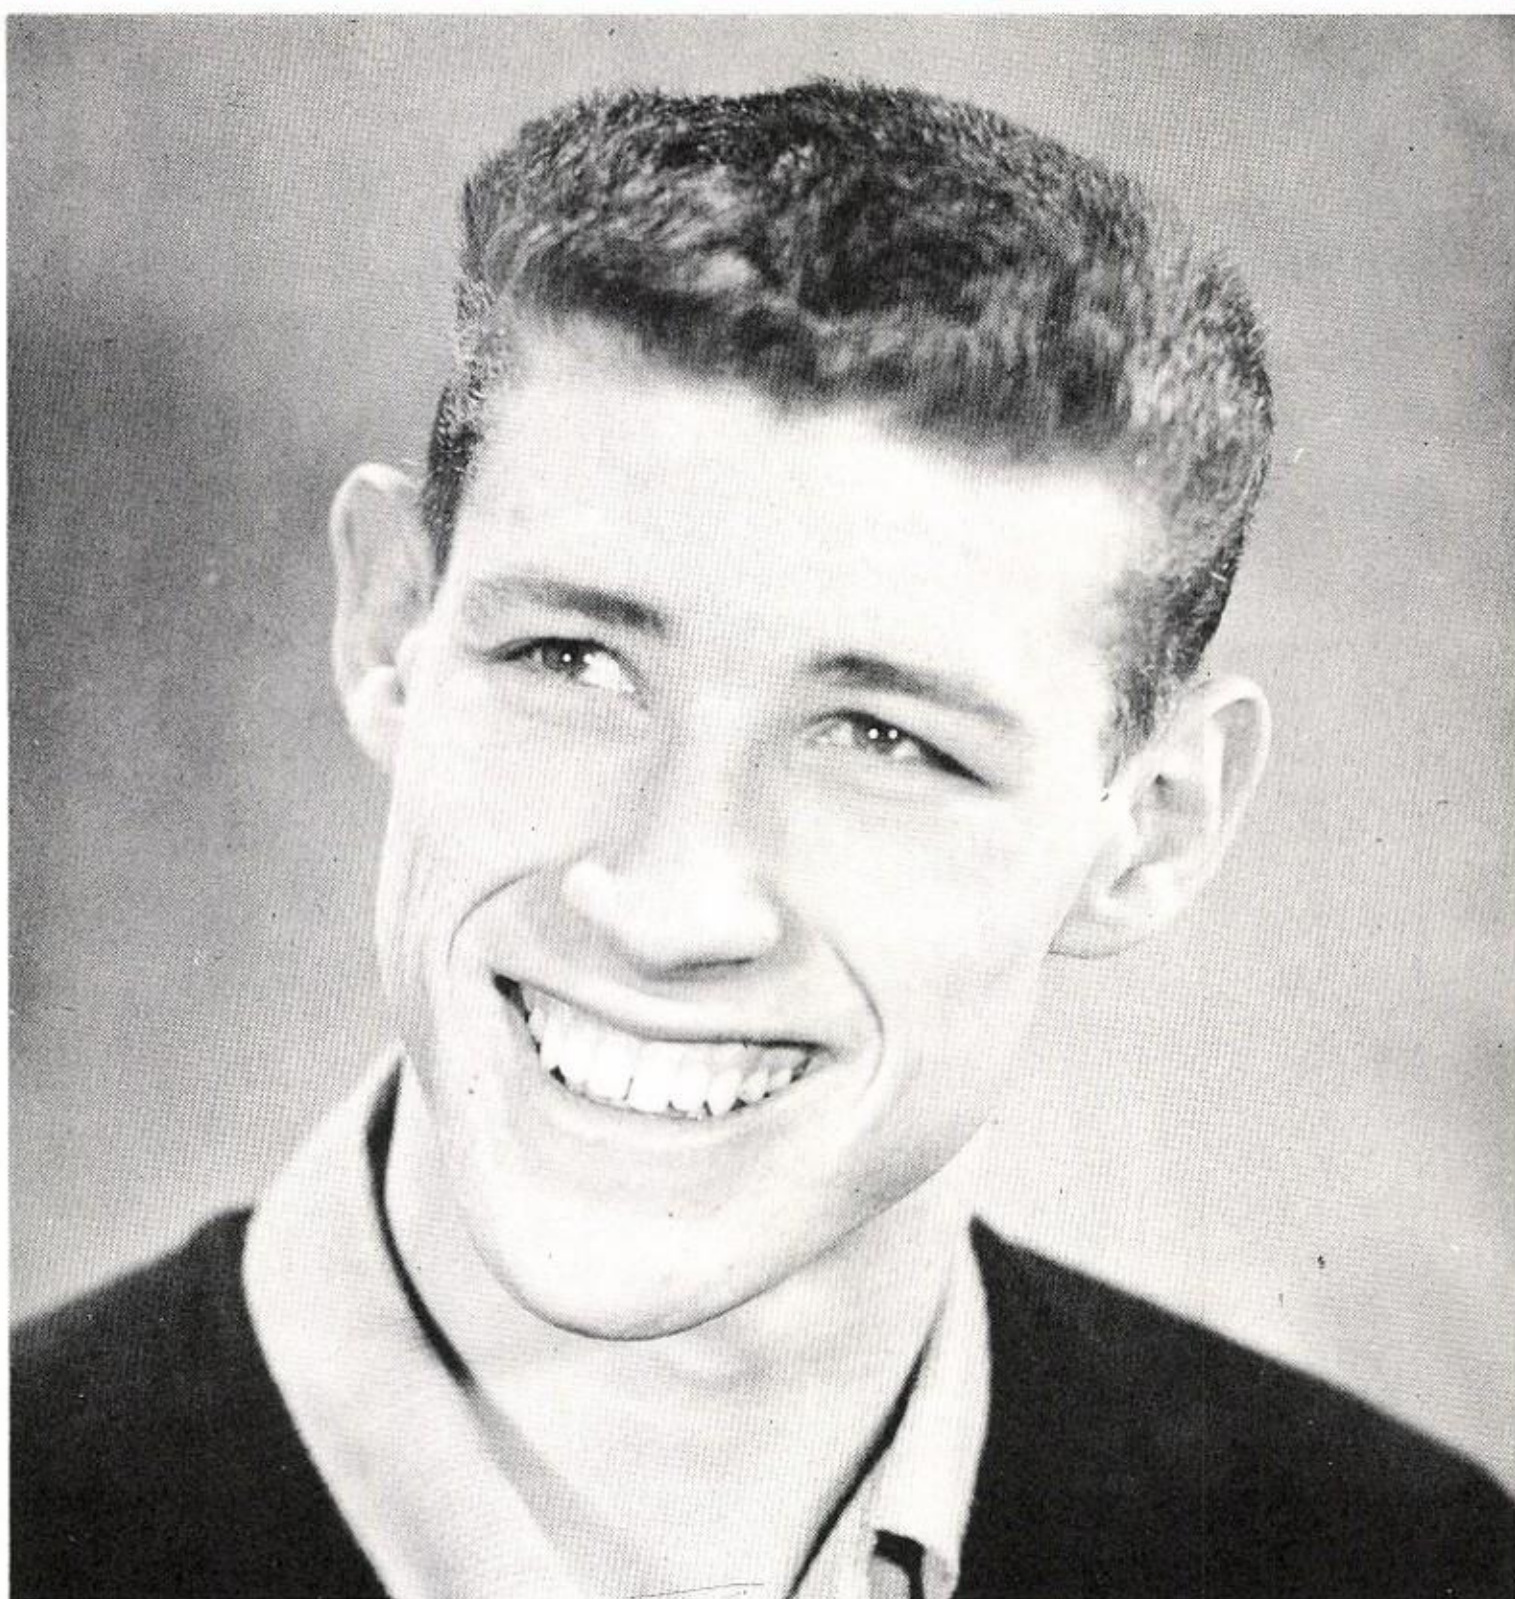

Intelligence, good looks and a sparkling personality have made Bobbie McKean something extra special. Bubbling over with enthusiasm, Bobbie well deserves the honor bestowed upon her by the student body of South High School.

Bruce Lake, Historian

The serious attitude, the "super" intellect, and the serene personality of Bruce have put him high in the estimation of every Southerner. He has done a job well worth the highest praise.

Bill Farley
Student Body President

In all the annals of South High, there have been very few presidents as well liked as Bill Farley. By winning a name for himself in sports as well as by showing us how capably he can handle the problems of our school, Bill has made himself a favorite with every member of the student body.

He puts his whole heart and soul into all his endeavors, and the results show that Bill really led us on to "greater heights and fame." Upholding the tradition of South which has been built up through the years is a difficult task, but Bill has proved that he was the man for the job.

Board of Control

Composed of our student body officers, our class officers, a representative from the R.O.T.C., the school publications, and the administration, the Board of Control forms the student governing body of our school. Meeting regularly this organization decides the activities of our school year along with the school policy. This year we believe that they have gone out of their way to offer us a great South.

Ted,

Thanks for helping me so much on the campaign. That's where I got to know you so well, and I have really enjoyed our friendship. You are one of the finest boys here at South. I wish you the very best of success & happiness.

House of Delegates

The House of Delegates is the means by which we express our ideas about South High's activities. Composed of home room presidents, this organization gives everyone a chance to help make decisions about the important events of the school year.

Each representative attends meetings in which the desires of his home room are discussed. Then he or she, as the case may be, brings back to class the final word or over-all opinion of the whole school. It is through this organization that every Cub feels that he has a voice in the government of South.

The school year 1952-53 has come to a close; an outstanding graduating class has laid aside its books. In this, our yearbook, we have attempted to recall all the memories from September to June. Each day takes on a special meaning . . . every game, every assembly becomes a priceless treasure to be put carefully away for later reminiscence. By participating to the fullest extent in every activity that South has to offer, the seniors have strengthened the traditions of which we are so proud.

To you, the outstanding leaders of this graduating class, Dick Anderson as President, Bill Boam as Vice-President, and lively Carolyn Davis as Secretary, we owe a debt of gratitude for a year rich in activities.

Junior Class

Past the timid sophomore stage, yet not quite sure of that confident senior manner, the juniors have come to the end of a wonderful year as "in-betweens." They have participated to the fullest extent in all activities the school has to offer, and by doing so, they have made dances, assemblies, etc., more entertaining for the rest of the student body.

By co-operation with the faculty, and by earnest work, South's juniors have proved that they are good material ready to be moulded into the seniors of tomorrow.

Sophomore Class

South's newcomers, the sophomores, have successfully made the adjustments needed to be good citizens of our school. The enthusiastic "youngsters" have been highly co-operative with the rest of the student body and have done their best to prove that they, too, are Southerners. Their efforts have been convincing, and now they are ready to come back next year as real veterans.

...Southern memories...

We, of the Southerner, are proud to present a glimpse of our three years from Sophomore to Senior.

... the Sophomores arrive ...

June 30, 1953
 Hi Dad, you got a great year
 huh. And it's been real nice knowing you this year & last year. See you next year. Be good.
 a friend
 Elaine Nelson
 53

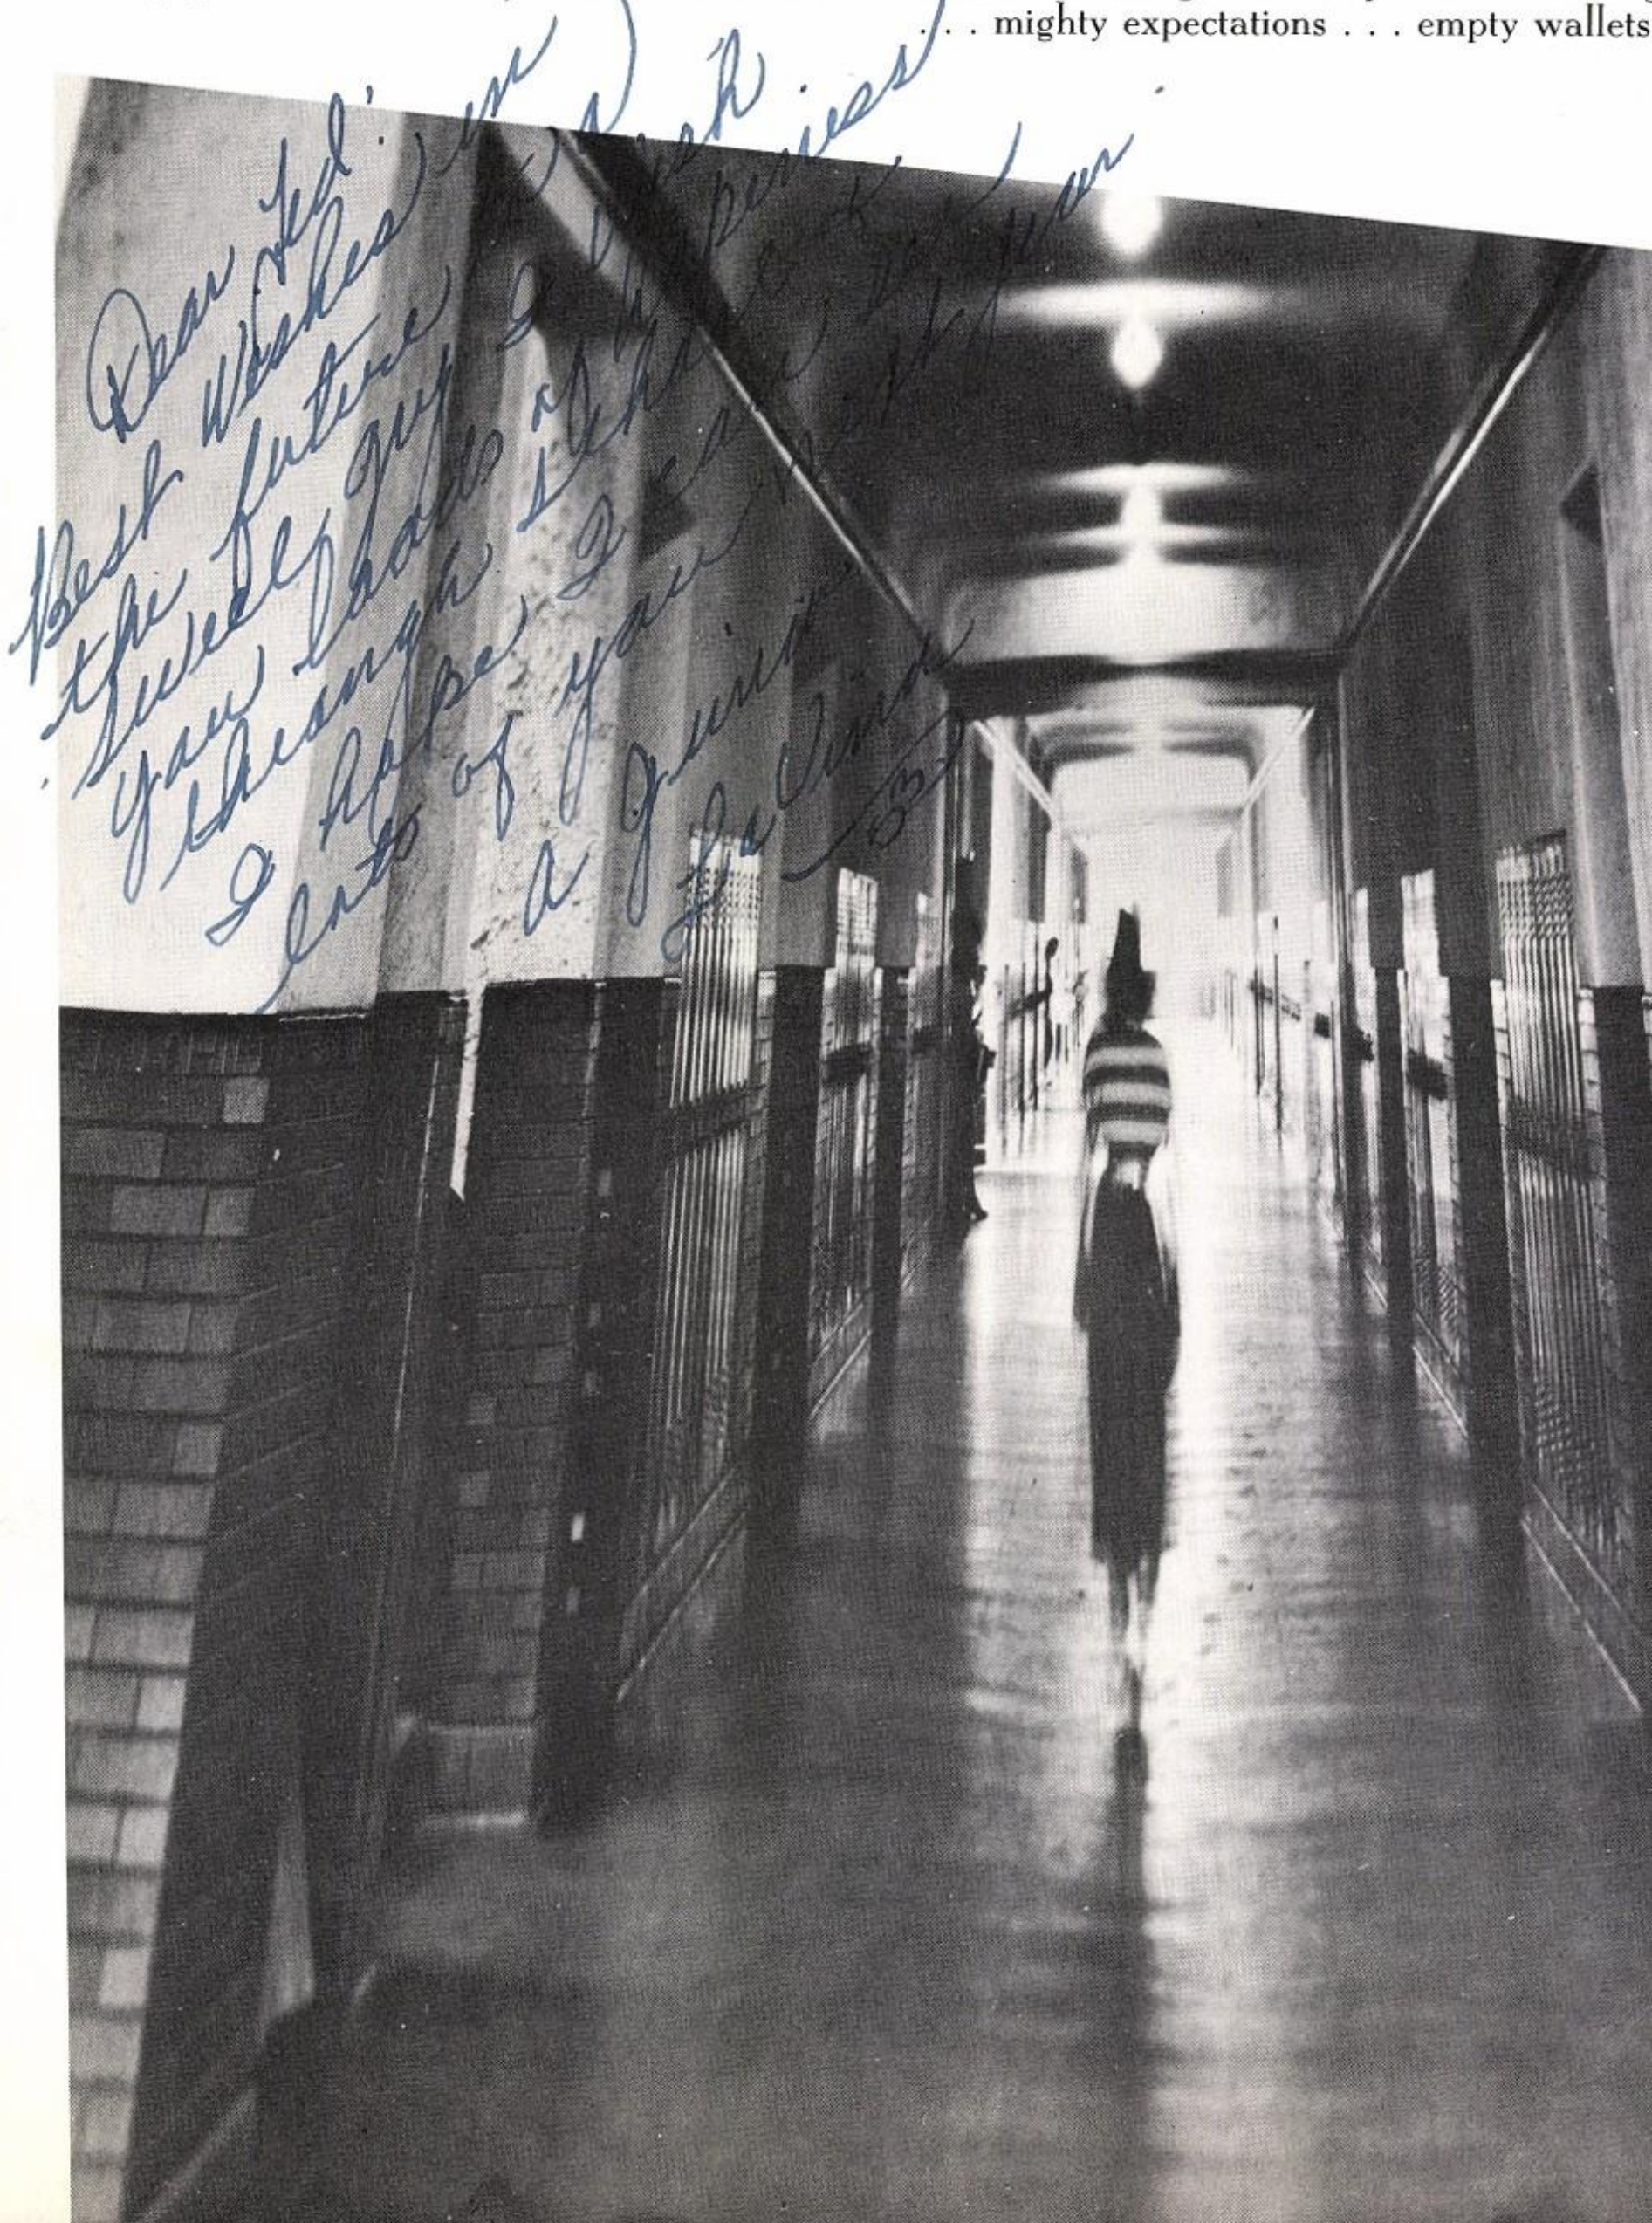

The anxious anticipation is now a reality. The moment that was so far away is here. The crowded buses arrive; the final stretch of walk is covered, and our high school career is begun. High school at last, with crowded foyer, long halls, pandemonium of many voices, the turmoil of the first day of school — all of these things are typical this opening day.

... after our first look comes ...

The insignificance of the individual increased by the vastness of his environment . . . gigantic halls create weird illusions . . .

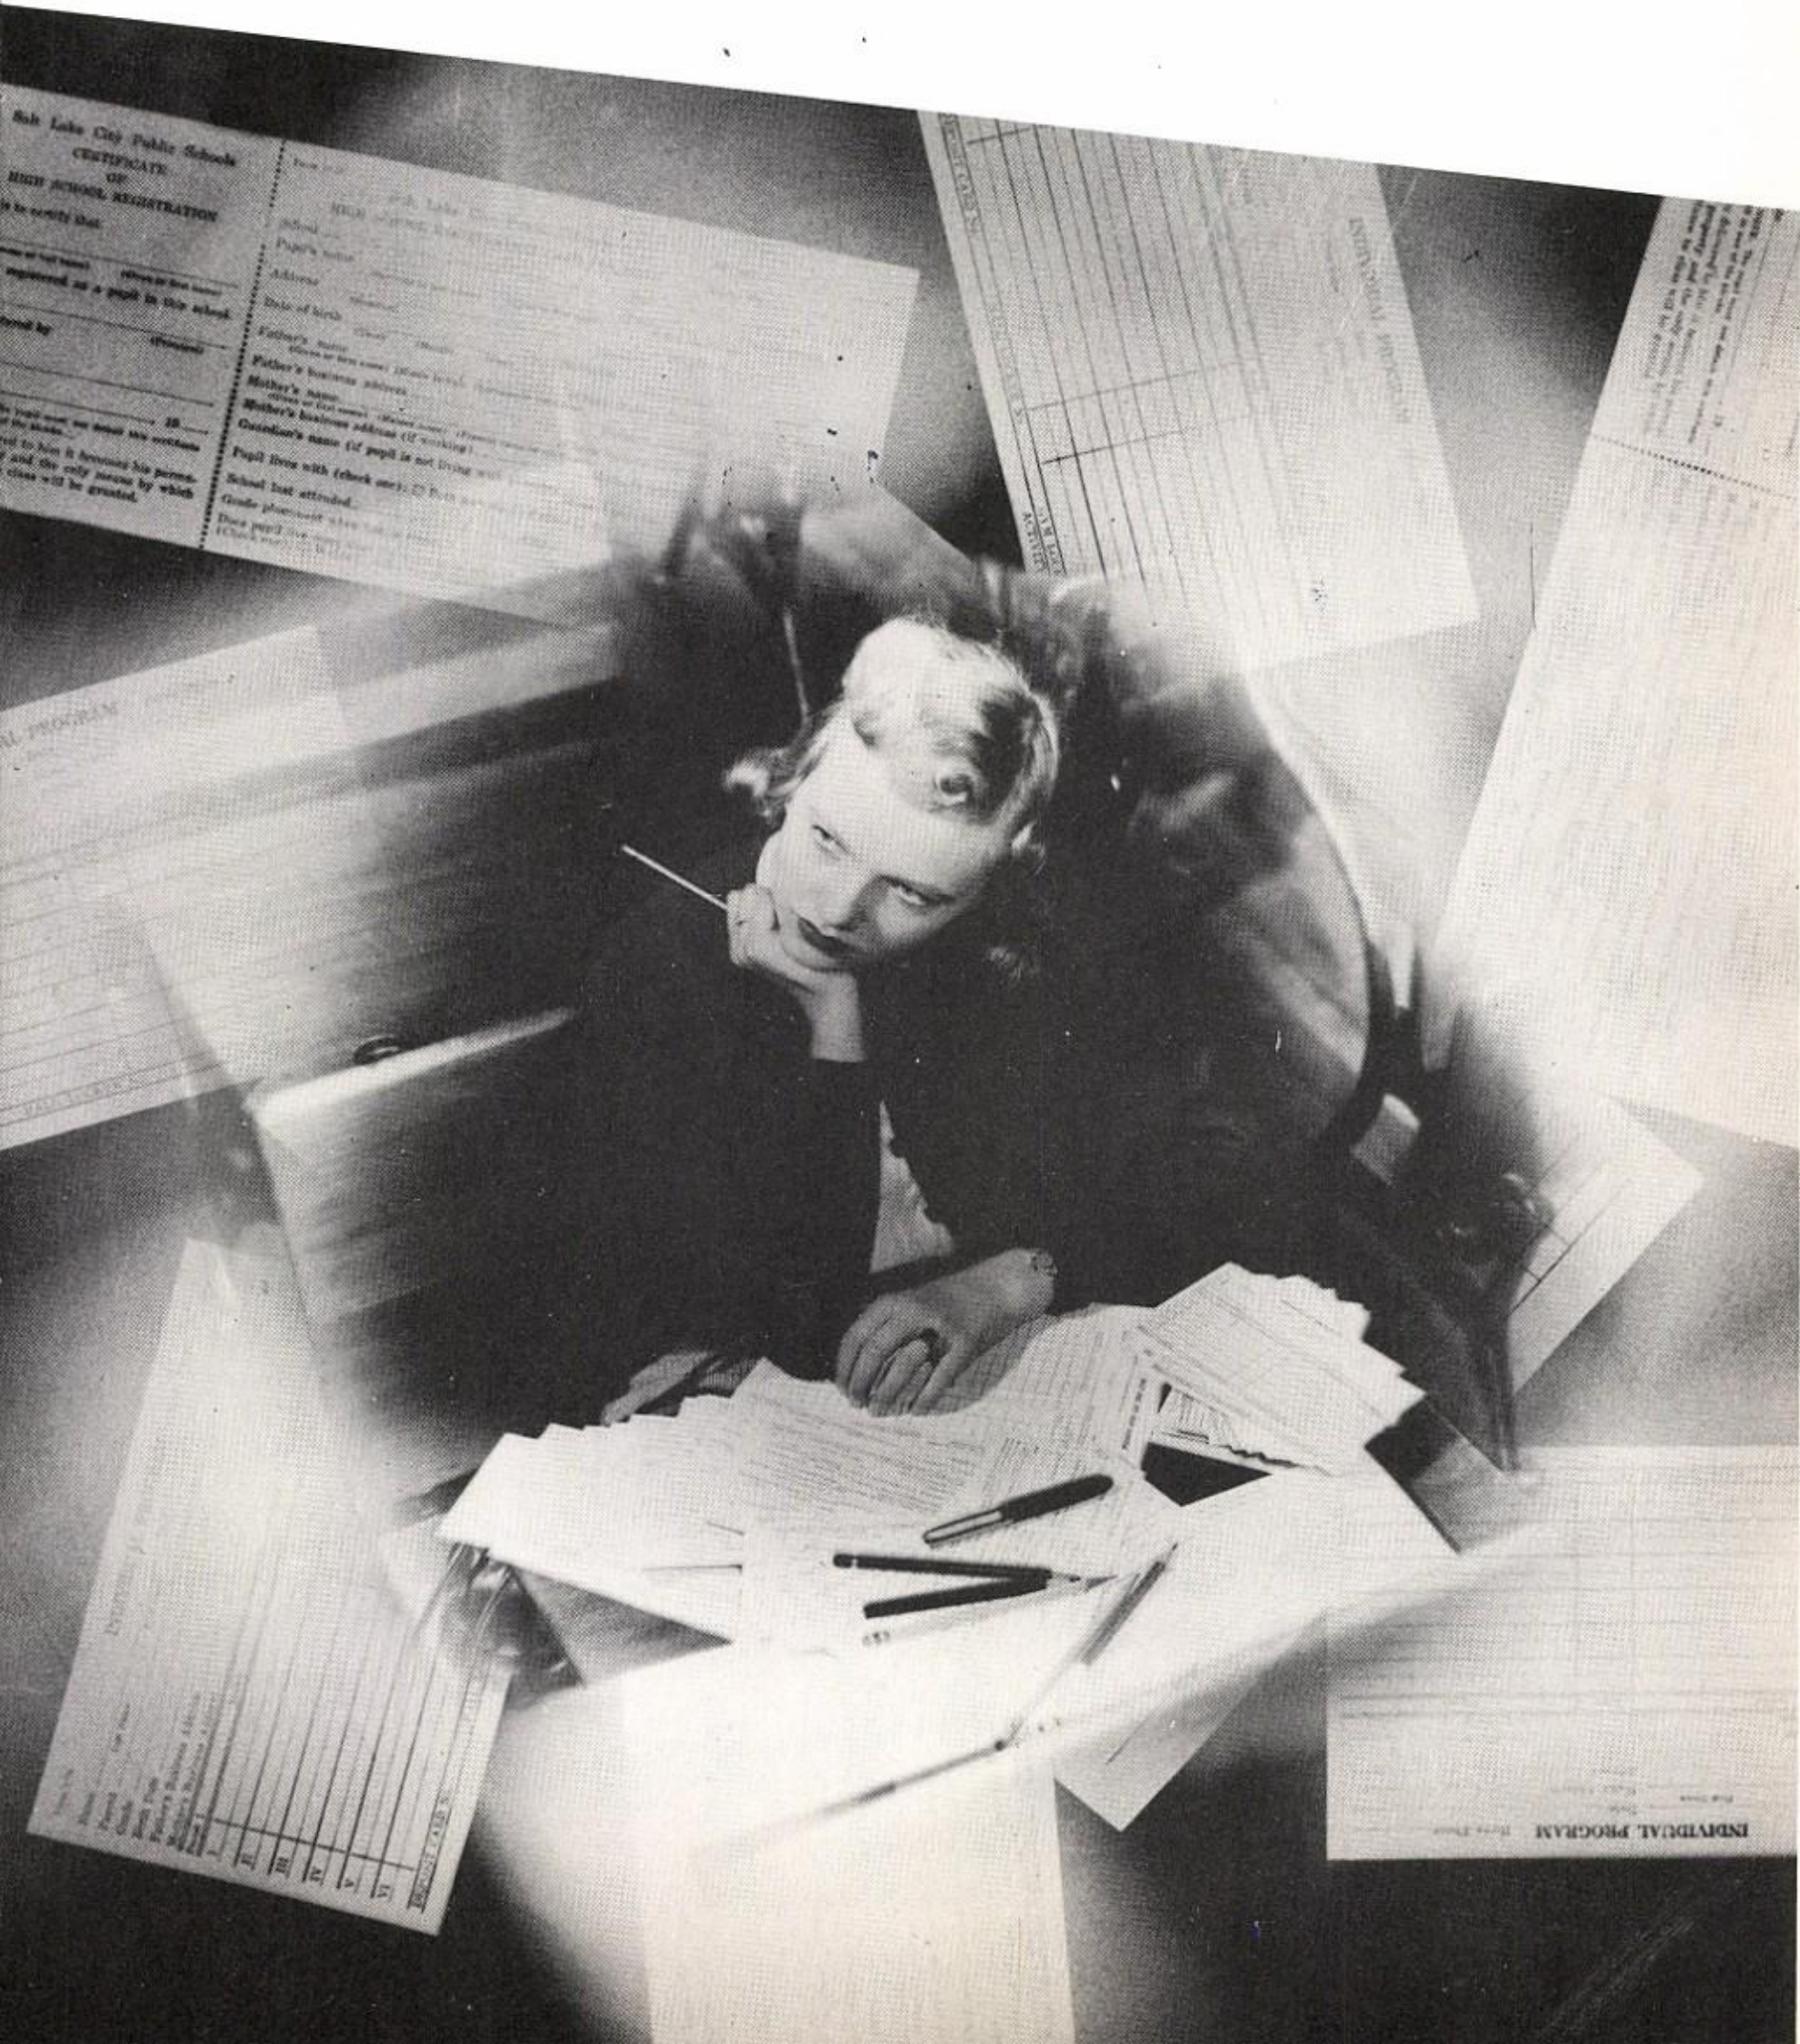

rooms and locations form an enormous image . . . teachers' faces blur together, mountains before midgets with alphabetical seating . . . mighty expectations . . . empty wallets

... registration ...

Elusive 63 B's, always where they aren't . . . registration cards crowd sheep from our dreams . . . then "Hello Day," initiation is over . . . school routine is begun. But there is a feeling — a "something" that makes it different. School spirit — that's it, school spirit! It's always there, kept alive by numerous activities, to make high school life the ultimate of a scholastic career. But besides that, and perhaps more important, there are expectations of things to come — another year — a better year — next year.

... the honors and achievements

Our Junior year begins . . . many start training for important positions to be filled in our Senior year . . . classes . . . work . . . assemblies . . . dances . . . games . . . the year moves forward . . . the finish of basketball and track season leave South in a realm of glory . . . State Champions . . . this is a thrilling, exciting, never-to-be-forgotten year.

of our Junior year . . .

Outstanding students gain recognition . . . South is honored . . . eight Ford Scholarship winners . . . four Girls' State representatives . . . one Boys' State representative . . . Girls' State . . . an opportunity to learn the detailed working of our government . . . Ford Scholarships . . . offers a head start on a college career to students of top quality . . . these are memorable events in our Junior year.

Hi Ted,
 I'm really not mad that I got a good year. I want to know if you wish you were in the year.
 I'll see you
 next year.

Highlights magazine is distributed . . .
 the Southerner is autographed . . . the final dance programs are put away . . . our Junior year is over . . . we are ready for next year
 . . . our last year . . . our senior year.

Ted,
 Well we didn't say any more together this year maybe have a really good time to a really good luck Remember next year on the school.

... Senior year ... activities ...

(Reserved for Gayle) Why?

Dearest Ted,
What can I say that will explain the way I feel about you? You are such a terrific kid that I feel it is really an honor to know you.

You have had so much fun in Gullmer's class and those are memories that we will always remember. (How could we forget?)

Thanks a lot for being such a good friend and let's keep it that way always.
Have fun this summer and be good. Both of those at the same time will be kind of tricky!

Best of Everything Honey and always remember me!

Love and Kisses
Gayle

P.S. God you are good-looking! Light

... graduation ...

Three years of southern life . . . each better than the last . . . as a final touch . . . the school pin . . . to remind us forever of the friendships made . . . the excitement experienced . . . the knowledge gained . . . the beauty of graduation.

... bound volumes of treasures...

Dearest Ted,

Every time I come into 5th period and see your smiling face it makes me happy for the rest of the day. You sure are a darling boy and I can plainly see you are going to be spoiled all the rest of your life by girls chasing you all over the earth. Be good, anyway, and don't break too many hearts.

Love
John B.

PUBLICATION

Hi Ted,
about it that a crazy grammarian child? Didn't learn much, but surely had a lot of fun. I haven't seen you too much since I moved.
I might see you after graduation if I am lucky.
A friend always
Diane Bishop

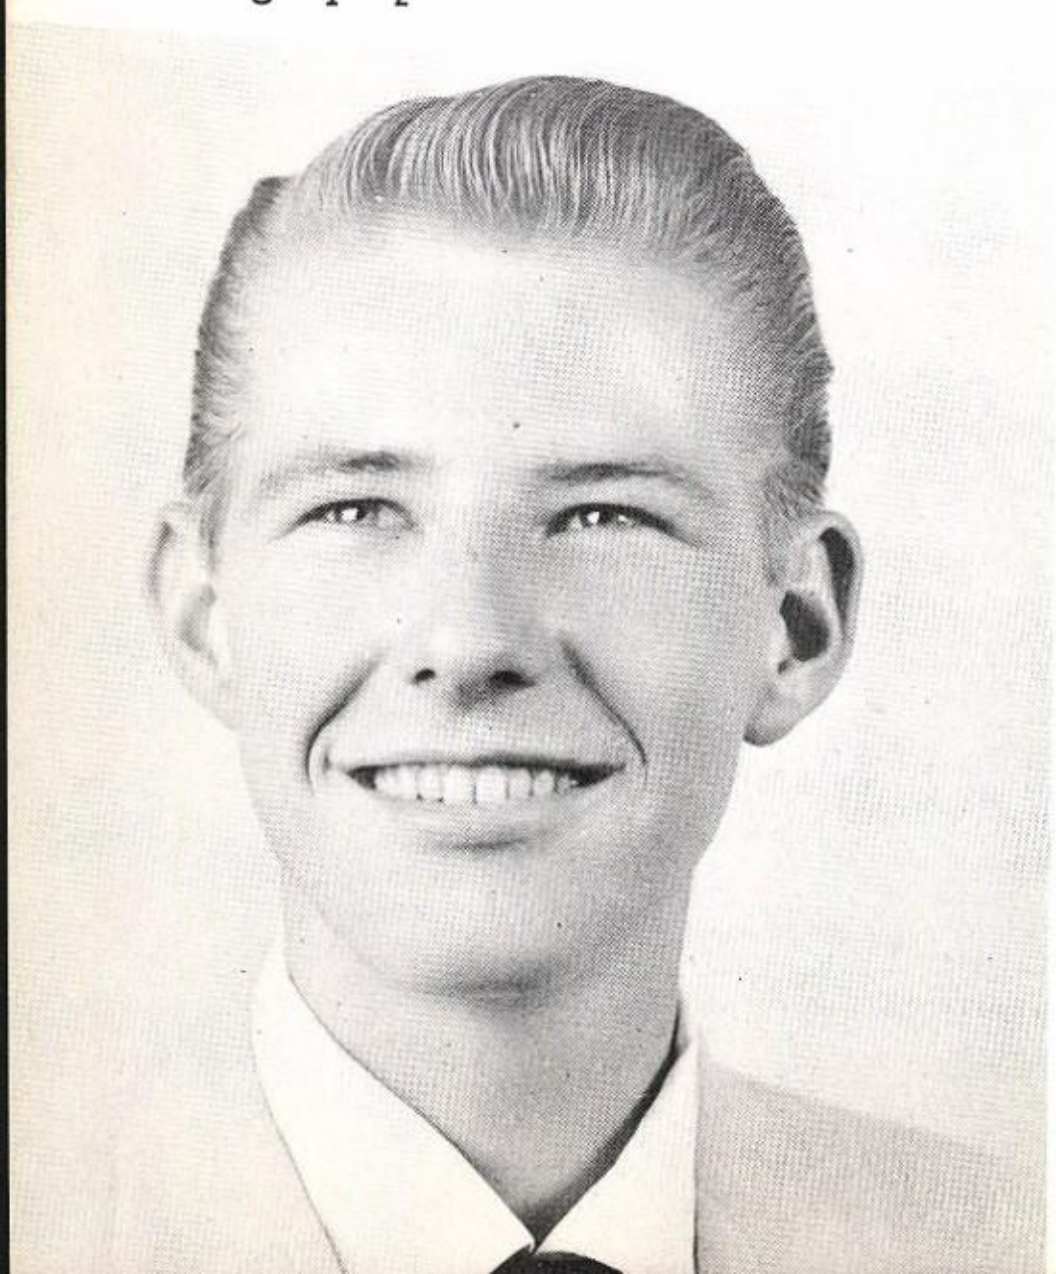

Dear Ted,
Well "Dopey", have you had fun this year.
I sure hope so. Keep up your cheerful personality and you will have fun in all the years to come.
Loads of luck & happiness to a wonderful boy.

Gladys Smith

Barbara Hart
Associate Editor

Bill Bawden
Photography Editor

Gladys Smith, the attractive, intelligent editor of the '52-'53 Southerner, has been the only girl ever to serve in this capacity. By competent, efficient managing and swift decisions concerning layout, choice of pictures and copy material Gladys has maintained an atmosphere conducive to the finest of work. Her personality has made creating the yearbook a genuine pleasure.

By picking Barbara Hart as associate editor of this year's Southerner, the sponsors made a wise choice. We on the staff all know her personable manner and her sweet, sincere personality. Through the handling of such things as the index, and copy, Barbara has lightened the load on the rest of us.

To Bill Bawden we are indebted beyond repayment. Without his knowledge of composition and technical advice, this book would contain none of the unusual, superior, and beautiful pictures found on so many pages. The deciding of where, when, and how a picture was to be could not have been done without Bill's patience and wonderful good nature. A dozen men will be needed to replace you, Bill. Thank you for a magnificent book.

Pete Nielsen

Though he is new to the yearbook business, Mr. Nielsen has filled his job well as sponsor of the Southerner. By always being good-natured and eager to help us, "Pete" has done his part in making the yearbook a success.

James Harwood

Aside from handling his many duties as a member of South's faculty, Mr. Harwood devotes all his spare time to supervising the photography of Scribe and Southerner. Skillful and efficient, he does a noteworthy job.

Jean Stout
Bonnie Sanders

Capable photographers, talented artists, wizards of words and phrases — these and many, many others are those who have combined their talents and their efforts to produce a masterpiece — the Southerner. They are really a wonderful gang, and it is indeed a great privilege to be associated with them.

Scribe

Humorous articles depicting the lighter side of student life . . . fascinating features about everything from "It" by "That" to the Jr. Birdmen Club . . . enlightening editorials and sport highlights — all these and more, too, have played their part in making Scribe an outstanding publication. Staff members have been hustling to write copy, prepare layout, meet deadlines, and do the many other odd jobs which go into making up a paper. Congratulations for an outstanding year!!

Donna Reeder, Editor

Donna with the "dancing feet" has displayed one more of her many talents this year in making the distribution of Scribe a "looked-forward-to" event at South. Always available, always helpful, Donna is worthy of our highest praise.

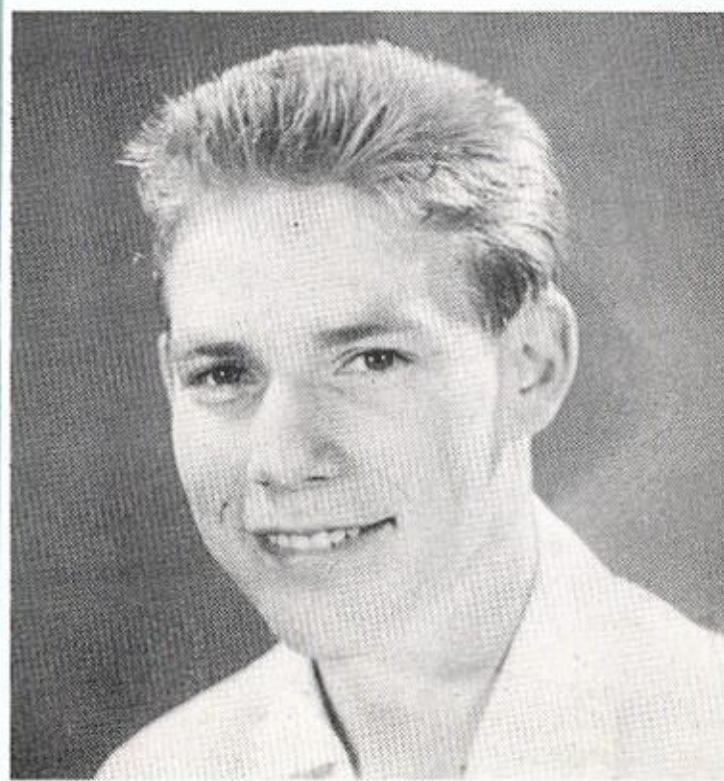

Dale Zabriskie, Associate Editor

"Zeke", our live-wire sports editor, is as easy-going as he is sincere. When it comes to athletics, he's a "real gone guy." We're all going to miss him on the Sports page, but then, "That's The Breaks."

Richard Wisan, Sponsor

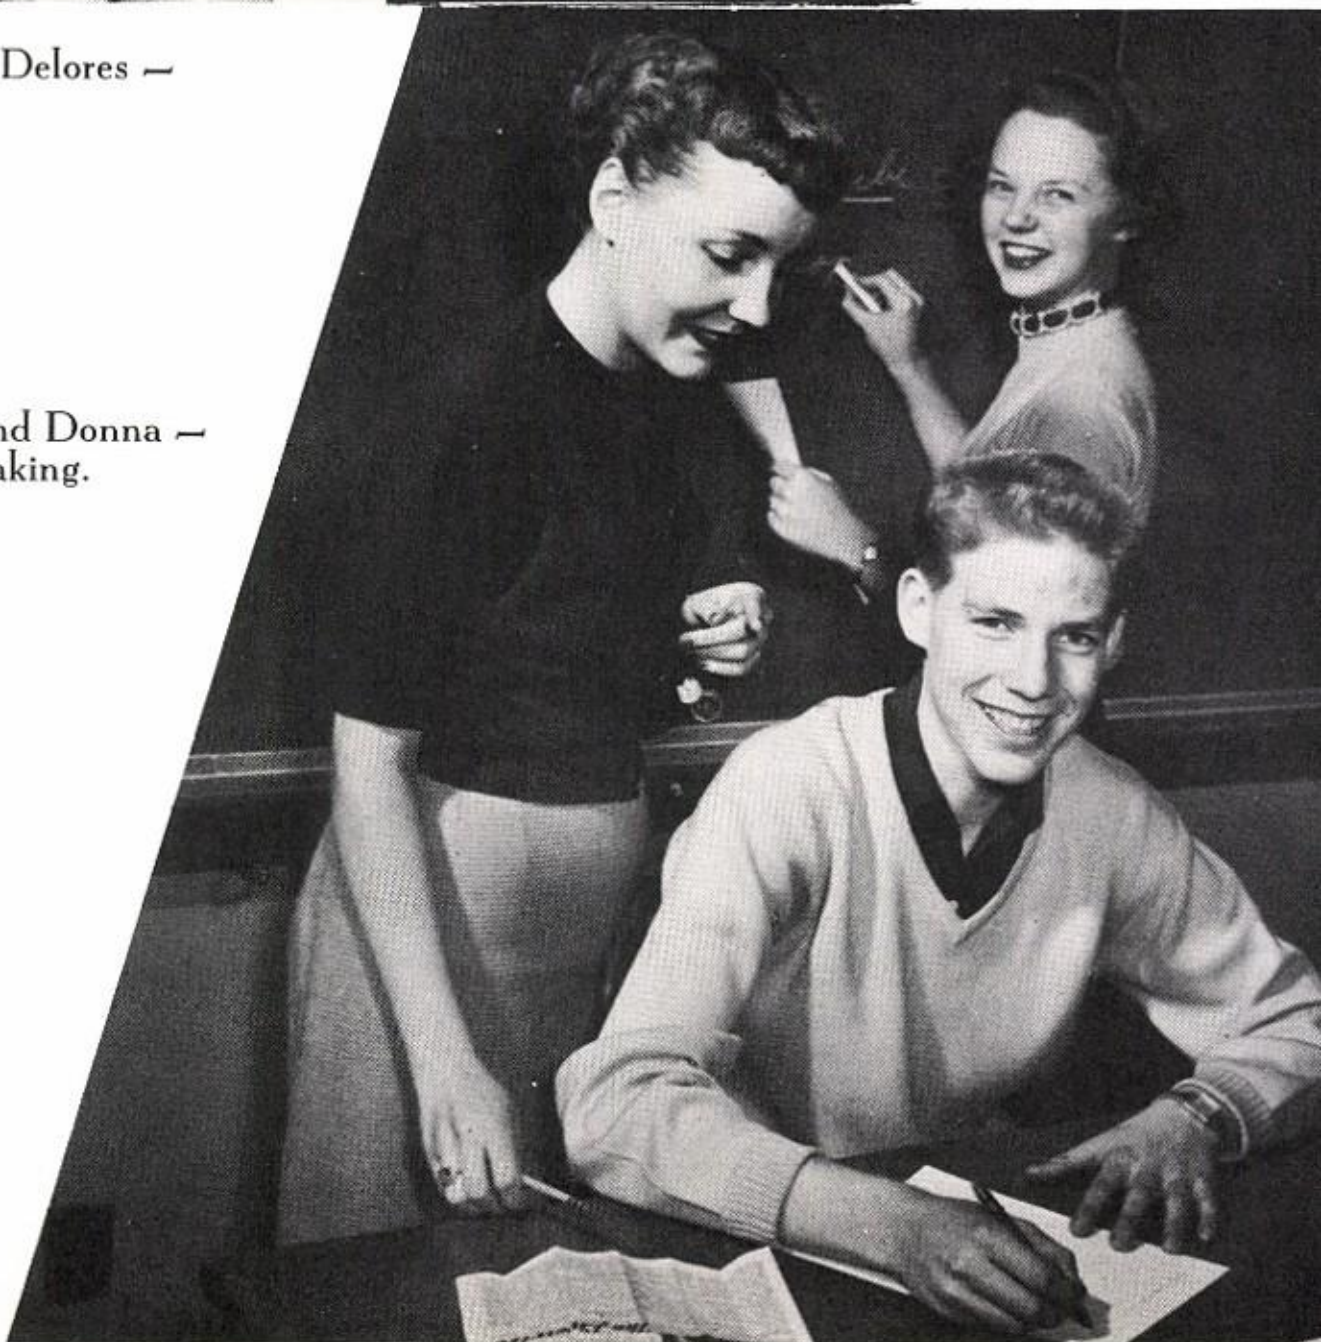

So witty, so charming, and so mischievous, that's our Mr. Wisan, sponsor of Scribe. He has not only an expansive knowledge of his work but a respect for new ideas that equals it. Because he takes a deep personal interest in people, he's a grand friend to make. Our thanks to Mr. Wisan for helping to put our Scribe over the top.

A Scribe in the making.

Highlights

Although Highlights is published only once during the school year, it offers an excellent opportunity for our budding geniuses to show their talent. Under the skillful direction of Miss Fern Dalby, the staff has carefully screened and edited all poetry, essays, and short stories to be used in our very interesting literary publication. Highlights reflects credit on the students of South High.

Dearest Ted

(dig this)

Well I guess your about finished with your high school education! Seriously though you only have one more year to go then on to --- "Hollywood"... I really think it has been a lot of fun incriminating you the way we did and I hope you will forgive us. It has been a lot of fun living on the same block as you and having all the fun we did this last summer. Well cat!! I hardly know what to say to you except your a swell kid (now don't get the high heel).

I'm sorry about all the teasing I've dished out to you but I'm glad you have a great sense of humor and can take my bidding. I guess I have Courtesy, efficiency, and speedy service all play a part in the make-up of the South High office staff, which has done its best to orient the timid sophomores, to serve the confident juniors, and to eye askance the mighty(?) seniors. Behind the scenes — in the kitchen, to you — there is activity at all times, but the cafeteria comes to life one hour during the day. For the three lunch periods it is a rendezvous for students to laugh and chat about the events.

Bookstore

One of the handiest, most convenient spots in South High is the bookstore. At one time or another, every Cub has had to make a mad dash to our school supply center for a much-needed pencil or a package of paper. Speedily and competently the courteous attendants have served us all year. Three long, loud cheers are in order for the bookstore and its staff. South High without Mrs. Durning would be like cake without frosting.

When it comes to snappy music with a beat, the South High band just can't be topped. Long, tedious hours of practice, for both playing and marching, go into the makeup of our superior music makers. As all Cubs who went to our home ball games know, the band just seems to radiate pep and school spirit. Not only have they thrilled countless school assemblies but they have also given concerts at many junior high schools.

The high standards that are kept by our A'Cappella Choir are a credit to South. Top-notch music produced by hours of practice is something every Cub, as well as many other music lovers appreciate. Persistence and industrious practice on the part of the members of this group is time well spent.

It develops their talents as well as produces a polished product for the pleasure of those who care at all for music. Promoting the talents of its members, giving them the opportunity to carry on in the field of music, the A'Cappella Choir is something that will reflect respect and recognition on South High.

Hello Day

Mr. Palmer meets our student body at South's traditional display of Southern hospitality.

Prexy Campaign

The coming of a new school year heralds the coming of election campaigns. Taking a backward glimpse, we remember . . . picketing bear cubs for Farley . . . "Rog is a Peach" . . . Dick's "Be Happy Go Dennis" . . . Bruce's campaign skits with Mason and Don . . . doing a ballet ???

Barnival Assembly

Nov. 21, 1952 . . . what a day to remember! As the familiar bell rang, announcing the assembly, students swarmed over ramps and stairs, eager to find a seat downstairs, in the balcony, or even on the third-and-a-half (!) to watch the boisterous fun we knew would follow. Nor were we mistaken in our anticipation. Remember the side-splitting church scene when Clark Jaynes led us in "It's in the Book", adding his own verses about faculty members? Who could forget "The Bunny Hop" done with appropriate words by our student officers, and the hilarious hill-billy narrator, reminiscing about his family and friends? After the assembly preview, we were all in the mood for the "Barnival", South's annual "High Jinks" night.

Football Dance

The "Big Eight Ball" gave the Cubs a chance to honor their own football team as well as the teams of all the schools in the Big Eight. Our reputation of southern hospitality was maintained when huge portions of cake and ice cream were served to everyone.

A second chance to honor our team came with the "Touchdown Trot." Clever decorations of the football players' portraits combined with blue and white streamers, put everyone in the mood to say thank you to our team for another season of hard play.

Surrounded by stars of every size and hue, these clever girls presented an enchanting assembly. Weird creatures of heavenly origin guarded our tour up the "Stairway to the Stars."

Assembly Committee

From the first warm hello of Mr. Backman to the tearful farewells, last reminders, and "see-ya-next-year," every assembly has been produced only through the combined ideas and efforts of our assembly committee.

Barnival

". . . ah, refreshments."

November 21, 1952 . . . what a day to remember! Students swarmed over ramps and stairs, eager to find a seat downstairs, in the balcony, or even on the third-and-a-half (!). Remember the side-splitting church scene when Clark Jaynes led us in "It's in the Book" adding his own verses about faculty members? We were all in the mood for the "Barnival," South's annual "High Jinks" night.

Cap guns, derbies, and plaid shirts made Barnival a rootin' tootin' affair.

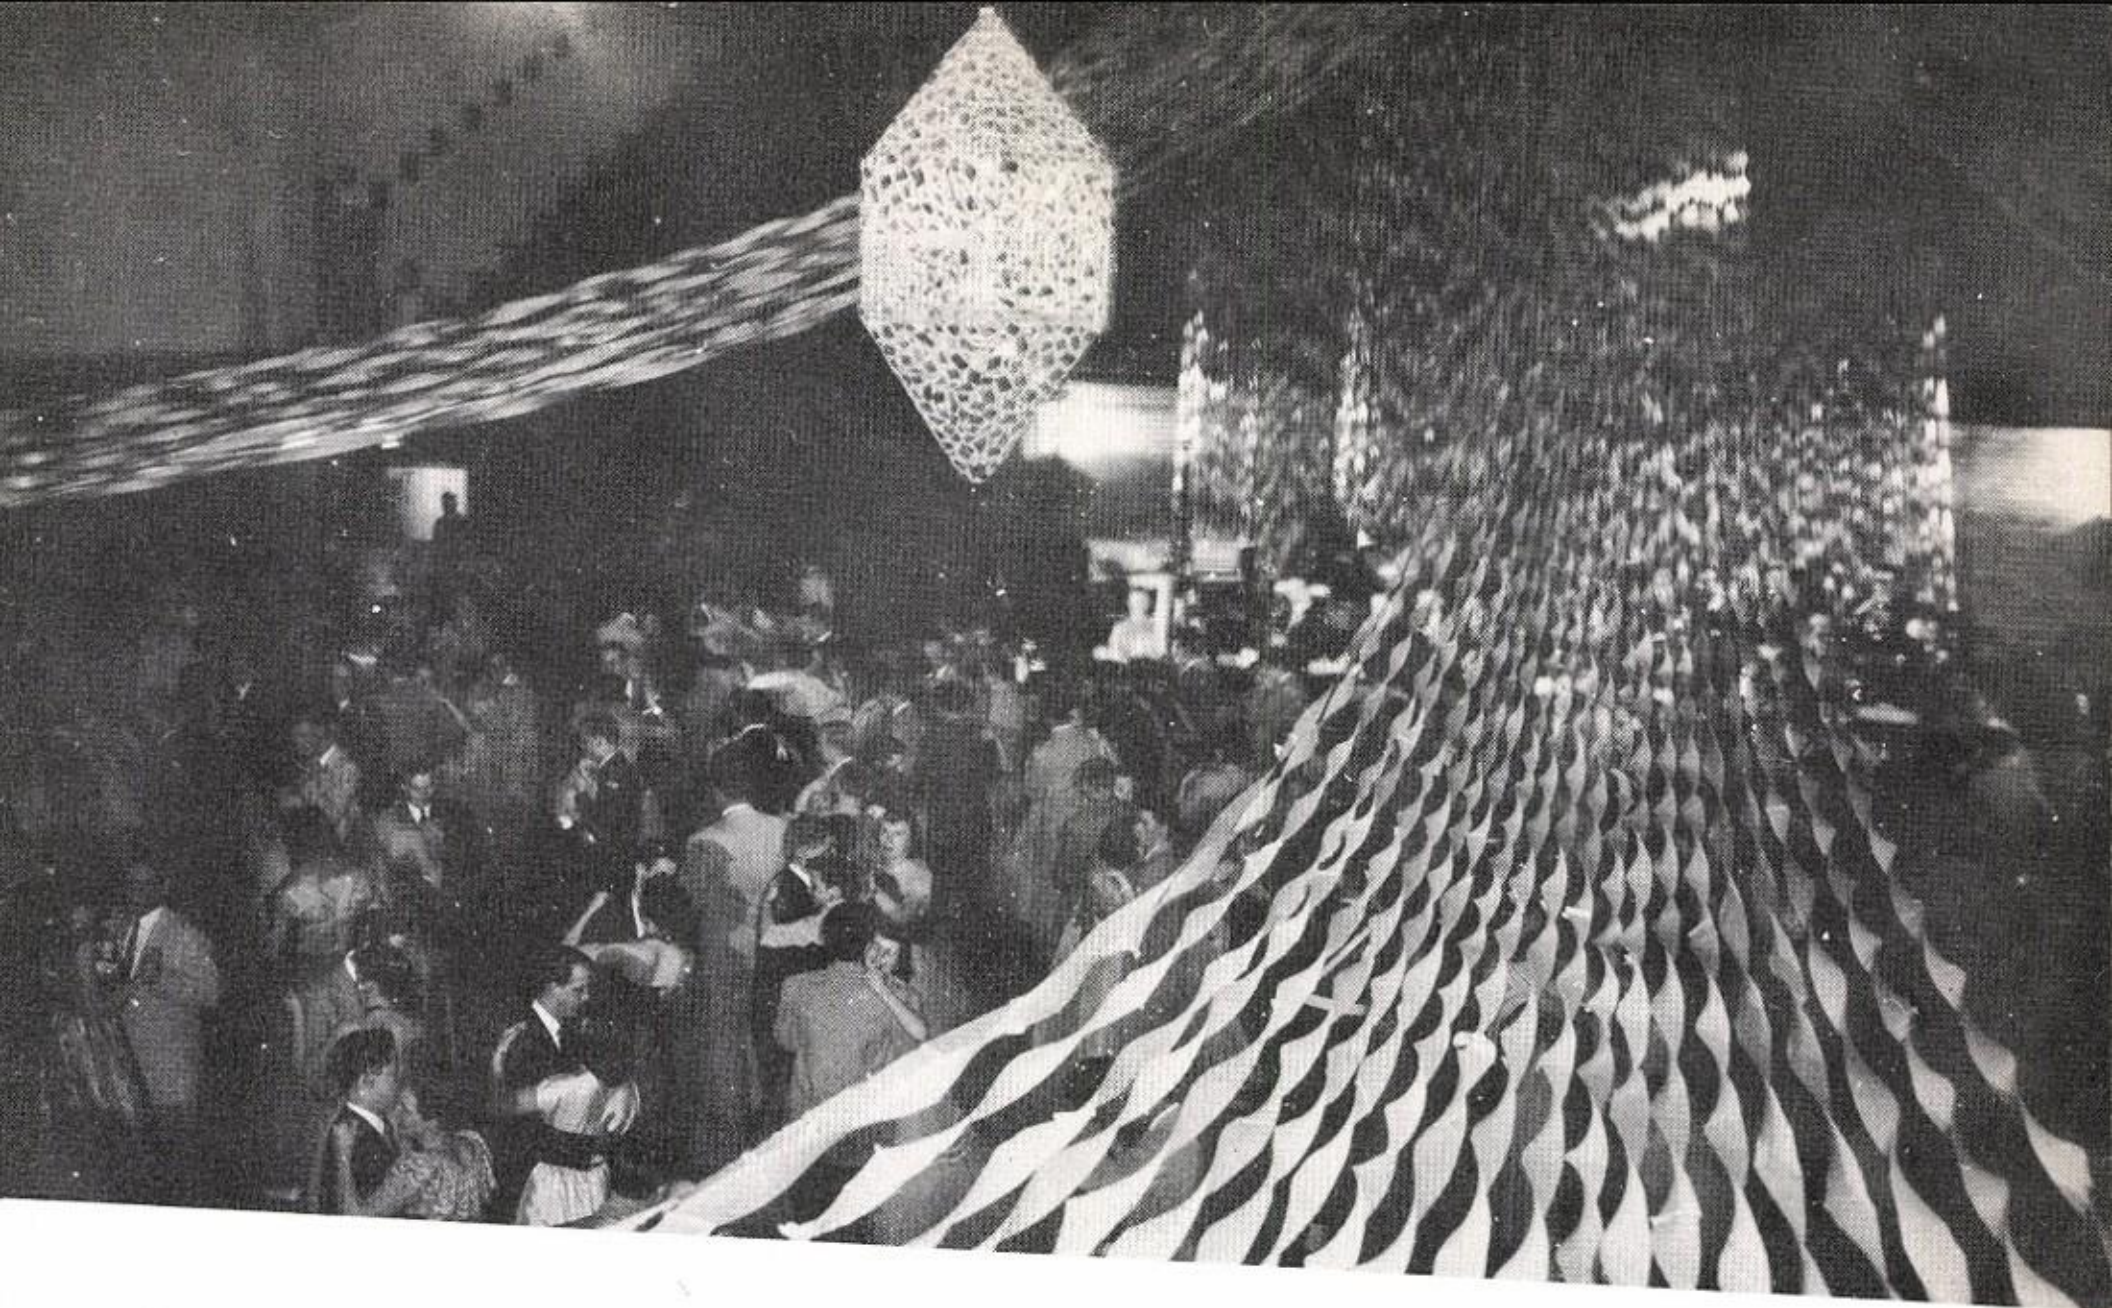

Girls' Dance

A bit of heaven was here at South High on January 31st, the night of the annual Girls' Dance. Thousands of tin foil stars carried out and perfected the theme, "Stairway to the Stars." These sparkling decorations, provided by a hard working Girls' committee furnished an unuausally spectacular setting for the lucky Southern gentlemen who were fortunate enough to attend with their favorite ladies.

Peggy, Jane, and Marilyn . . . decorations under way.

The refreshment room.

Military Prom

"Four score and seven years ago . . ." Don Jackson and David Bertelson set the mood for the annual R.O.T.C. assembly.

Beneath the huge, slowly rotating mirrored-mass-of-glitter swished the multi-colored formals at South's annual Military Prom, "March to Freedom." Great battles of history were portrayed through art work upon the walls and the orchestra was entrenched in a battle strong-hold. An atmosphere of romance prevailed throughout the evening.

The R.O.T.C. welcome.

"Christmas Tree Angel"

A lyrical fantasy was unfolded in this inspired work of art. Swaying dancers, perfected soloists, and ingenious staging effects combined to make this mythical tale seem real. This performance, presented by the girls' gym department, was one of the most breath-taking productions in the history of our school.

Archery

Arrows fly, often miss, as South High girls turn out to perfect themselves in this exhilarating sport.

To a really good-looking guy. I'm sure glad I met you because you are really fun to be with. You are really tops on my list. We never did meet formally but at least we did meet. We have really had some fun parties haven't we? We will have to get together and have some more, maybe a beach party.

The story of the West game was told in the last fifteen seconds, when West pushed across the winning touchdown in the most vicious game of the year.

Brilliant defensive play, spectacular punting, and a mediocre offense tell the story of the Provo game. While winning, the Cubs never once showed their offensive potentialities.

Setting aright many another South - Jordan tilt, the Cubs pounded the bewildered Beetdiggers all over the gridiron. Final score, 14-0. Ah, sweet revenge!

Employing the spread formation, Coach Graves and crew sent the beaten Carbon Dinosaurs back to the coal mines to lick their wounds. The rout saw the bench cleared as the cubs racked up T.D. after T.D.

The determined Cubs, seemingly on their way to the top, ran over the inspired Granite Farmers to the tune of 14-7.

The erratic line play of the little Bruins proved to be the Cubs' downfall in the 20-0 defeat at the hands of the Davis Darts.

In a hard fought battle with their traditional rivals, the East High Leopards, the disappointed Cubs were beaten 14-0. The champion Leopards topped the Cubs when within smelling distance of a T.D., thus writing finis to the 1952 football season.

Following the traditions set by past Rebel teams, the fighting Cubs display a bulldog tenacity. "Do or die" is their slogan.

Tennis

Serve . . . Forty . . . Love . . . so Cubville's tennis "pros" shout as they continue to dominate the Big Eight play.

Golf

Once again South's win-happy linksters are proving that South is the school that fosters champions. Good work, fellows.

Front Row: Claude Cawley, Glen Shields, Bob Lee. Back Row: Bud Fisher, Dick Mortensen, Bob Reed, Gordon Porter.

IN MEMORIAM

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

... the conclusion of Southern Splendor

Dear Ted,

Gee Ted, we have really had a lot of fun together, haven't we? I hope that it will always stay the way that it is now between us. I have really had a lot of laughs and hilarious moments, and I have loved every minute of it. You are one of the nicest kids I have ever known, with a million-dollar personality. I hope that I have you in a lot of my classes next year, or at least one class.

We had a lot of fun taking dancing lessons, didn't we? I think now that it wasn't worth it now don't you?

I hope to see you this summer and always. I don't think that I will ever forget what fun we had at Pileys and skating too.

Well Ted, looks like I'm running out of paper, so I'll say good-bye for now.

all my Love

you are one swell guy.

Datsy

always the best of luck and success in the future.

The final chapter is complete. Everything is put away for another year. All that the staff has left now is the story behind these pages. The memory of incidents . . . such as the interview with the F.B.I., the Secret Service Bureau, and the Treasury Department to get a release for the picture on page 60. I shall long remember the morning spent at the governor's mansion, page three, and the good luck we had taking the picture on page four just ten minutes before the school was engulfed in a blanket of fog. These are just a few of the sidelights that made compiling this annual more like fun than work.

This story could never have been completed without the support of the professional talent of Lorin Wheelwright and Max Wheelwright of Wheelwright Lithographing Company; and Peter Ecker of Ecker's Studio. Their workmanship speaks for itself.

The words "thank you" don't seem enough to express my appreciation to Barbara Hart; associate editor; to Bill Bawden, photography editor; to the staff, and to the sponsors: Mr. Nielsen, art; Mr. Harwood, photography; Miss Schroeder, business; Mrs. Sehee, advertising; and to Mrs. Pearson, literary.

Special thanks go to Miss Woodcox for permitting the photo crew to use her room as an entrance to the dark room.

A final thank you goes to Mr. Backman, Miss Dyer, and the faculty for the faith and understanding they have shown, especially when the staff had to miss class.

It is my sincere hope that within these pages each of you will find the memories which have made this year truly a year of Southern Splendor.

Editor, GLADYS SMITH

The Easter Parade.
Another outstanding assembly.

Each year editors ask us to help them create a yearbook that will really be an "eyefull" — something different.

To make a yearbook that is just "different" is no great accomplishment. To make it "different" and a colorful, exciting, meaningful eyefull, is.

Congratulations to you, Gladys Smith and your entire staff for a job well done. We have enjoyed working with you.

Dear Col,
 you know its funny, I never could get used to calling you Ted so I hope you don't mind I'll never forget the thrill I got the first day I came to South & saw all my old friends.
 I'm real glad that I could come to South & enjoy your friendship. I hope it will continue next year & my the year to us come.

Dear Ted,
 Well, it looks like no more school
 for a while doesn't it?
 That Bookkeeping class was quite the panic, no to mention Summers. Well, he good this summer and try to have fun anyway. Lots of luck and success, now and in the future.

Dear Ted,

Oh I don't know what to say.
But you whiz Ted you really made this year really terrific for me. You'll never know how much I admire you.
I hated Bookkeeping, but you really made it wonderful. I'll never forget how wonderful my senior year was. I hope that next year when I see you, you will say hi!! I hope I see you next year.

Oh Ted, I'm already sad, because I don't want to say good-bye to South and all of my many friends.

I think you are really super. That's my way of saying what I think of you.
Also remember the school play! I always will.

Well, adios Ted, auf wiedersehen,

P.S. Be good, but have a lot of fun!

Always a friend,
Alice K.

Dear Ted,

I really don't know how to begin writing this, but anyway here goes. I guess I'll never forget all the fun we had together. I'm really glad that I got in Harwood's class. I remember the first day in there & how hard I tried to find out your name. I guess I never will be able to figure out how we started talking & then you started walking me to class. But anyway I'm glad it happened! I'll never forget the Carnival! Remember the fun we had at the Rainbow. You just can't imagine how I felt when you asked me. I've still got all the crazy notes we wrote. Remember all the times we cheated on poor Mr. Harwood's tests! I guess that was about the funnest class I had all year! I guess I'll never forget today & all the fun we had at church and after. Its really been swell! Remember the day we all shuffed & went to Andy's Lake. That was one of the funnest things I've ever did. I remember how we used to tell everybody we went steady. Although we never have maybe some day we'll get around to it. Well gee ted I can't think of anything else to say. I just want you to know I've had more fun going with you this year than anybody else. I guess I'll have to tell you that you are really a swell guy, but don't get conceted will you! But seriously you really are a great kid & I'm really glad that you & I have been able to go together. I hope we can still continue to have lots of fun. Until then Love, As Always

Reserved

Colleen KANKER Mouth

It's really been a terrific year hasn't it?
English has even been fun with you around.
We've had a lot of laughs together. Have a real nice summer and I hope I see you next year.

Dear Ted
Hope to see you in gym and golf and don't let different

Hi Dad, the best you're ever looking long in South so I'd better see more of you. Best of luck. Love and be good. Jackie Scarlet

I don't see you later,
 Different from you.
 I don't see you later,
 Different from you.

Dear Ted,
It has been really fun knowing you. You have really made the "old" English class fun. Best of luck to a real swell D. Duke and

Good luck to a small kid.

Dear Ted,
Your really a swell kid, and you'll really get some where in this world, especially ~~what~~ with the girls well probably see you next year.

Ronald

Dear Ted,
It's really been nice knowing you these past years.
I can remember the gym class really been great. (I think) anyway
I hope you're doing well.
Love,
George Mageroy
